

Kondanani Anthem

We were the forgotten children,
Unwanted and lost.
Just another mouth to feed,
A promise of great cost.
Our beginning laced with rejection,
Poverty and despair,
Without hope and a future
Life was empty, cold and bare.

One day the answer found us
A helping hand from on high
Who reached into our situation
And didn't pass us by
We arrived at Kondanani
A village full of love
For the unwanted and rejected
Governed by God above.

Chorus

We are the children of destiny
Hand picked by the King
Chosen as His precious gems
That is why we sing. X2

(Last time only)

We'll bring glory to our King!

There began our new life
In this special place
The life we knew has long gone
Disappeared without a trace
We're the leaders of tomorrow
Our destiny is sure
Teachers, lawyers, doctors
Whose motives and thoughts are pure.

Chorus

Bridge

We will change our nation
From nothing we have come.
We'll transform our generation
Until our work is done.
